Exercises of Pupil’s Book

2 Look and say

There are some eggs in the fridge.

There is some yoghurt in the fridge.

There is some meat in the fridge.

There is some butter in the fridge.

There is some salt in the cupboard.

There is some flour in the cupboard.

There are some nuts in the cupboard.

There is some pepper in the cupboard.

There are some onions in the cupboard.

3 Ask and answer

flour nuts herbs spices onions pepper yoghurt eggs bananas butter salt

Is there any flour? Yes, there is.

Are there any nuts? No, there aren’t.

Are there any herbs? Yes, there are.

Are there any spices? Yes, there are.

Are there any onions? Yes, there are.

Is there any pepper? No, there isn’t.

Is there any yoghurt? Yes, there are.

Are there any eggs? No, there aren't.

Are there any bananas? Yes, there are.

Is there any butter? Yes, there is.

Is there any salt? Yes, there is.

4 Read and match

1. Mansaf is a very

(e) special meal in Jordan.

2. People make mansaf

(d) to eat on special days.

3. In mansaf, there is bread,

(a) rice, meat, sauce and nuts.

4. People at a meal usually eat mansaf

(b) from one big plate.

5. When people eat mansaf together,

(c) they enjoy it.

7 Look and say

I'm going to go to the market to buy some salt.

I'm going to go to the market to buy some pepper.

I’m going to go to the market to buy some bananas.

I’m going to go to the market to buy some flour.

I’m going to go to the market to buy some herbs.

I’m going to go to the market to buy some onions.

I’m going to go to the market to buy some spices.